

Hábitatplus

DiVino with Italian Bouquet

19/12/2011 | Section: Articles | Posted by: HabitatPlus

The goal of this beautiful space is becoming the place of reference for the wine culture in Panama, and its ambition to become the temple for wine lovers and all who want to learn about this fascinating world. Among the services offered, including wine tasting and tasting.

DiVino opened 8 months ago to become the typical place of Italy in Panama, can fill that void and nostalgia, evoking the most pleasant memories to those who visit, characteristic for its wines and Italian local flavors.

Born as the realization of a dream of three friends who decided to join in partnership by a single passion: to share the culture and philosophy of wine. Since entering DiVino, warmth surrounds the "guests" as they prefer to call their customers. Its infrastructure, built with bricks made by hand and recycled antique wood floor makes every detail has been created and designed to achieve a cozy atmosphere.

DiVino is an Enoteca, which is nothing other than a place that serves wine and is sold with a mission to spread the wine culture.

It has 9 vineras, which are graded with different specific temperatures to keep the wine at its best. Also, the local air conditioning stays on 24 hours in order to keep products fresh.

His Enoteca has a wide range of wines from around the world, with over 150 labels, many of them brought from Italy, since the intention is to highlight key DiVino Italian culture for wine in Panama, in addition to wines Italians are one of the most recognized worldwide for its quality.

Their prices can range from B / B 28.00 / $ 500.00 per bottle, which indicates for every budget, while the wine glass can go from B / B 6.00 / 9.00 the cheapest and others that can go B / B 15.00 to / 20.00. Attention, atmosphere and quality service make DiVino a special place where people can go either to exploit the culture of wine, or whether to enjoy the other services offered, quality.

One of the characteristic dishes are DiVino trays imported hams and cheeses, Italian, Spanish and French.

They also have a letter highlights of the house, typical of Italian cuisine, as are the alla Parmigiana Melanzane, which is an eggplant lasagna with red sauce and parmesan cheese with mozzarella. They are also traditional meatballs in red sauce and Buschette, which are cubes with cheese, ham and tomatoes.

The DiVino environment is unique, exclusive, comfortable, relaxing and special, for all kinds of people, preferably adults. An ideal place for conversation, with a pleasant background music for visitors to share the moment and enjoy to the fullest with his companions.

The goal of DiVino is to become the place of reference for the wine culture in Panama, and its ambition to become the temple for wine lovers and all who want to learn about this fascinating world.

It is located in Casco Antiguo, San Felipe, Avenue A, the intersection of 4th Street, holds office hours to the public from 6 pm to midnight.

